This perfectly complements my love of travel and the outdoors, especially for information on international bicycling trips – like through the wine regions of France!

www.omahasteaks.com

What can I say? This is on my mind as outdoor grilling season really gets revved up. Great for self or for gift giving.

I like fine wine, and I like this particular winery's offerings. World's best estate syrah.

www.QuelObjet.com

You can tell I am a Francophile. Beautiful gifts from France, especially the chocolate-covered roasted almonds made to look like black and green olives. Divine!

To preserve your sanity, have a place you regularly back up your computer that is off-site. My fantastic Web guy taught me this. Backing up your computer is cheaper than therapy.
